We will not soon forget Graduation Day 2009. Were it not for the timely response of our amazing deans, the day certainly could have been a disaster. Thank you for your quick and skillful reaction to an early summer thunder storm which drastically changed our Graduation ceremony logistics.

Even though the storm caught us all by complete surprise, the building security and safety of the graduates and their families were not compromised at any time.

Please know I am grateful to have you as a member of my team. Have a healthy and restful summer vacation.

Dear Mr. Sanjamino:

It is with deep regret that I accept your resignation from your Dean's position as requested in your letter dated February 5, 2003.

Thank you for your many years of dedicated service as a Dean at John Adams High School. I commend you for your dedication to the school and to the students whom we serve.

In addition to the many challenges and responsibilities that the Dean's position entails, you consistently assessed school wide procedures and made insightful suggestions to the administration. I always appreciated your input and suggestions and we have, in fact, implemented many of them.

You have a passion for the job which, while beneficial to the school, can sometimes be a personal burden. I hope you will continue to offer your suggestions to administration, and your guidance and assistance to your colleagues who continue to serve in the Deans' office.

I consider myself fortunate to have had you in the deans' office during my tenure as Principal, and to continue to have you on our staff.

Hi,

We were saddened to read of your resignation from the Dean's office. Saddened not by your decision but by the loss to the school community. We still hold the Adams' family in a special place in our hearts, corny but true.

You did a superb job as Dean and certainly rank up there with Mrs. Keene, Mr. Hundt, Mr. Troiano, Frank and Henry. If Mr. D. ever creates that "Wall of School Treasures" that I proposed long ago, you would certainly be on it.

Conscientious school people sometime wonder if their efforts had positive results. Take it from this impartial observer, you need never entertain those thoughts. When I was working and often felt overwhelmed by the tasks facing me, I knew I could rely on you. Why shouldn't I have felt that way, you never let me down. I'm certain parents and students think the same. As for staff, they're often caught up in their own important tasks to appreciate what you do till you're not there to do it any more.

I hope the Math AP and Mr. D'Arta realize what a gem they have? I know students do!

Richard, I still remember the Adams students and staff in my daily prayers for all that they did for me. I can't do much more than pray to support them. Joan and I are firm believers in the power of prayer-I think I'm living proof of prayers' efficacy. I want you to know I offered today's mass and communion for you and your young family. I don't pray for things; I prayer God's blesses you and grants you success in whatever you do if it's for your wellbeing.

Dear Mr. Sanjamino:

In every organization there are those individuals who distinguish themselves by stepping forward to serve whenever the need arises. You have exemplified the actions of just such an individual.

As you know, the beginning of the new semester for any large comprehensive high school is hectic. Program distribution, textbook collection, metrocard distribution and the like, must take place for 3,400 students while classes are underway. We are critically understaffed for all of these functions to, simultaneously, take place.

When we asked for help, you immediately responded. Please know that your spirit of volunteerism and dedication to the students whom we serve is warmly appreciated.

I consider myself fortunate to have you as a member of our staff.

RE: Security Issues

Dear Mr. Sanjamino:

I commend you for your professionalism and dedication to the school community whom we both serve.

On Friday, May 5th you joined me at a Principals' conference to discuss several security issues precipitated by a recent incident involving a student and one of our School Safety Agents. The meeting was also attended by Inspector Sheila Skinner of School Safety, Mr. Matthew Geoghegan, representing Superintendent John Lee, Ms. Elizabeth Pryke, A. P. Administration/Security and Sgt. Ernesto Torres. At the meeting issues involving the incident were raised, including the timeline of the investigation. We also had an opportunity to clarify our various roles.

It was agreed that the care taken in conducting as thorough an investigation as possible was prudent to ensure that the charges would be sustained at the impending Superintendent's hearing.

Mr. Geoghegan indicated that he would investigate the possibility of promulgating a districtwide policy to accelerate approvals for Superintendent's level suspensions in cases where any staff member has been assaulted.

Regarding staffing issues, Inspector Skinner agreed that agents will no longer be redeployed from the school unless, and until, we are assigned additional agents. This commitment will be written in correspondence from Superintendent John Lee to City Councilman Alphonso Stabile.

It is my hope that our maintenance of a dialogue with greater lines of communication among all of us will ensure our effectiveness as a cohesive team in support of the school's mission.

Please feel free to share any concerns you may have with me. As you know, my door is always open to you.

Sincerely,

Richard D. D'Auria

An altercation took place between two young female students at the end of Period 12 dismissal, just outside of the school library. You patiently took statements from each of the students involved and remained until the police, EMS and the parents of the students arrived.

Your dedication to the students whom we service is what makes John Adams High School a special place.

At the end of a busy week, I appreciate that you were willing to remain until approximately 6:45 p.m. to expedite this case.

Dear Mr. Sanjamino,

This year's Graduation Ceremony was particularly challenging. The threat of rain compounded by the large number of graduates made the rehearsals demanding and the actual exercise difficult to execute. Prudence required that we prepare for both an indoor and outdoor ceremony. Needless to say you overcame the challenge and presented the parents and guests with a memorable Graduation Ceremony.

Dear Mr. Sanjamino:

In the theater, we know that often, the people behind the scenes make the play work. Quietly, from behind the scenes, you made the 1991 graduation ceremony "work."

Please accept my appreciation and that of the Class of '91 for a job well done.

Sincerely,

John DeRiso

Dear Mr. Sanjamino:

The third Annual Award Ceremony was a splendid evening for our honorees and their families. Your willingness to freely give of your time to assist in the planning and executing of the Awards Night program contributed greatly to the occasion's joyful excitement. Please accept my appreciation and that of the honored students.

Just as Graduation Day belongs to the graduates and their families, Awards Night belongs to the honorees and their families. Awards Night presents an opportunity for our students to shine. Your presence made the night brighter for our stars and more memorable for their families. For this I applaud you and thank you.

Cordially,

John DeRiso

Dear Mr. Sanjamino::

Please accept my appreciation for the additional time you spent beyond your regular work day to participate in the Superintendent's Suspense hearing for Gregory Campbell. Your willingness to remain at the hearing office until approximately 5:00pm, when the hearing was concluded, demonstrates both your tenacity to see a task completed and your willingness to cooperate.

You represented the staff and the school admirably. Regardless of the yet to be announced Hearing Officer's decision, in my opinion, you are a winner!

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Sanjamino:

You did it! In spite of the uncertain weather, the tight Regents Examination schedule and the unannounced construction work, the graduation program proceeded quite well.

Once again, you made the 1990 graduation ceremony a memorable event for the students and their families. Please accept my appreciation and that of the Class of '90 for a job well done.

Dear Mr. Sanjamino:

In spite of all the usual last minute upsets, the graduation ceremony proceeded quite well. I attribute this to your hard work and good efforts.

Please accept my appreciation for making the 1989 graduation ceremony a memorable event for the students and their families.

MR. R. SANJAMINO

Dear MR. R. SANJAMINO

In attending Saturday's workshop on the underachiever, you showed a general concern to expand your professional ability as a mathematics teacher. I would like to, at this time, commend you for taking time out of your very busy schedule. In doing so, you made Saturday's workshop very successful and fruitful .

Yours very truly,

John Zuccarelli
Assistant Principal
Mathematics Depart.
